Connect with AVP
Alternatives to Violence Project

AVP is a non-sectarian, non-religious, non military, all-volunteer national organization based on the belief that a life lived with dignity and self-respect, and the opportunity for self-actualization is the birthright of every person.

We are looking for more volunteers: energetic, responsible individuals who want to develop and connect with others, building community in our neighborhoods, modeling leadership, and facilitating peaceful conflict resolution.

If you are interested in making connection, we invite you to call Yanna Melborne at (909) 235-9929
or Fred Riddle at (799) 893-3435

There is no obligation. Let us tell you about our program, how you can become a workshop facilitator, learn leadership, and help make a more peaceful world, nation, and neighborhood.
